

香港特別行政區行政長官曾蔭權先生：

要求政府仔細考慮保留天星及皇后碼頭的方案

香港政府爲了解決中環交通問題，決定拆卸中環天星碼頭及皇后碼頭，並指出是次拆卸爲迫不得已的行動。我們明白中環的交通擠塞問題之嚴重，但亦希望政府明白天星碼頭及皇后碼頭是香港的重要地標，明白它們是市民生活、成長及回憶的重要部份。立法會規劃、地政及工務小組會議提議政府政府暫緩清拆計劃，正是反映著市民的意願。

早前，民間組織長春社提出了興建道路時避免拆卸天星碼頭及皇后碼頭，展示香港市民並不是單方面要求停止清拆，而同時亦願意參與研究實際可行方案。我們希望政府能採取開放態度，仔細研究此方案 (及任何其他的可行方案) 的可行性。

房屋及規劃地政局局長曾指出是次清拆再不實行就顯示政府辦事決而不行，但此清拆是與香港市民息息相關的問題，暫緩清拆亦是出於市民意願，所以暫緩計劃並重新仔細研究並不代表政府辦事不力，而是政府關心市民意願的表現。

天星碼頭及皇后碼頭是香港歷史的見證、是香港市民的回憶，我們強烈要求政府考慮不用拆卸碼頭的方案，以開放態度仔細研究，謝謝。

一群希望保留天星及皇后碼頭的香港市民

Exactly HOW MUCH is the traffic going to improve EVEN IF THEY DO SO? Couldn't they think of more sensible ways of solving the problem than taking away the places of memories and heritage? We're trying to save Hong Kong's identity, and if we let them destroy the terminals, how many more historical and meaningful places are we going to lose in the future?

Many true-blue Hong Hongers are emotionally attached to the 2 piers, as many of us grew up with the piers, using them day in and day out for our numerous journey across the harbour. In a sense, the 2 piers is an integral part of the collective memory that binds Hong Kongers together. What has happened to Donald Tsang's proclamation of grwoing up "drinking the HK water"?

The Queen Pier is a little but refreshing place in the crowded Central downtown, where you won't find it elsewhere nearby, i hope that HK GVT do re-consider that the traditional value & historical statue of this pier. The over development in the Victoria Habor is obvious, the water view will be lost.

257	Mr	Lau Ka Cheong	csw	probably the government can practise what she always preaches to citizens as to preserving landmarks. but if the realization of the utmost importance of historic landmarks, eg. stanley police station, victoria harbour,etc. relative to $ fails to echo throughout our "civilized" government, please seize the time and learn from other all-civilized nations. be humble
258	Mr	Nip Shun King	Hong Kong	我們可以要回自己的歷史嗎? 只是照片足夠嗎? 你? 聽得見嗎?
259	N/G	Joan Lee	N/G	This landmark is a major attraction to worldwide tourists. If HK government envisions being a world city, preserving this heritage is a critical positioning strategy to differentiate HK from other regions. Years later, in the eyes of visitors including our increasingly influential mainlanders, the Piers&rsquo; historic uniqueness will be one of the reasons for them to return and to spend more here. We lack no intelligent architecture like the Tsing Ma Bridge but more subtle cultural attraction.

339	N/G	Kimberly Mitchell	California, USA	Stop tearing down the Star Ferry Pier and Clock Tower! Stop filling in the harbor!! You are destroying what makes Hong Kong a unique place. I know that the Hong Kong government will probably make a lot of money by selling the reclaimed land to developers, but the Hong Kong economy will make a lot more money from tourism. Tourists like to see historical landmarks, not asphalt roads and apartment complexes. Without these landmarks, tourism will decline, which means the Hong Kong economy will SUFFER!

				unique to HK people. Personally, it hurts as much as losing a dear friend I've known since childhood. How are we going to explain to later generations when they ask of this place's history? It has already become part of our identity and Central will never be the same without it. Even though it's no longer functioning as a pier, we can preserve the architecture for alternative use.

360	Mr	Cheuk Hei Kevin Leung	Hong Kong	It really is a loss to Hong Kong. In such a modern and artificial city, there is little culture left, and yet we are destroying it. History is what we are made out of, once our past is destroyed, we no longer have our own characteristics. Development sure is necessary, but defending our own character is as important as that. 中環天星碼頭及皇后碼頭 is something that is irreplaceable once it's gone. Please re-consider the proposal.
